

Using Humor in Social Situations

Everyone loves to laugh. But what is funny to one person is not always funny to someone else. On the first page, fill in the speech balloons that you think would make this picture funny. In the pictures on the next page, write captions that you think would make each picture funny. On the third page, draw in other elements (people, animal, objects, etc.) that would make this picture funny.

