

What Are They Saying?

Do you pay attention to what people are saying with their body language? Fill in the words you think this person is likely thinking or saying. Then on the next page, put in the words that are the opposite of what he is likely thinking or saying judging by his body language.

Write in the opposite of what he is likely thinking or saying.

