

Completing Tasks in the Right Order

There can be many steps involved in completing one activity. When you choose the top priority, and then also decide the order of the other steps you should take, you are “prioritizing.”

Make a copy of this page. Then color and cut out the story pictures below. Rearrange them in the order that shows how Lizzie should prioritize the steps of giving her dog a bath.

