

Getting Along with Others

Some kids have lots of friends, but others say that they don't have any friends at all and that nobody likes them. However, it's not that hard to make friends when you make an effort every day.

Directions: Take a pencil and solve this maze, making sure you go through each area that tells you how to get along with others. Then go to the next page and find pictures of four more ways to get along with others.

There are some easy things to do every day to help you get along with others. Pick four of the phrases below and find an image on the Internet or in a magazine that represents this kind of friendly behavior.

Give compliments

Show you care

Start a conversation

Be helpful

Be patient

Share your things

Do something kind

Smile

Be polite

Talk about how you feel

Ask others how they feel

Listen quietly

Take your turn

Talk about the things that bother you with someone who can help

